INDIA'S LUXURY INSIDER

INTERNATIONAL ARTISTS ON INDIAN SHORES

On December 16, Mumbai's art lovers will have another reason to celebrate. Galerie Isa launches in the city with an exhibition by Berlin-based artist Anselm Ryele. Known for his large-scale abstract paintings and found-object sculptures, Ryele is being brought to India as the first exhibitor of the new art space being launched by art collector Ashwin Thadani. The gallerist's concept of introducing Indian art lovers to international art will see solo exhibitions by artists from around the world, every quarter. The debut artist Ryele has shown at celebrated galleries like Kunsthalle Tübingen, Tübingen; the Modern Institute, Glasgow and Galerie Almine Rech, Paris. The artist is primarily represented in private collections such as The Saatchi Gallery, London, the Daimler Collection, Berlin, Fondation Pinault, Venice, and Rubell Family Collection, Miami.
